Follow these simple steps to submit your case to BMJ Case Reports
You will need your personal or institutional Fellowship Code (ask your librarian or head of department)
New users can purchase a Fellowship online

Click on ‘Submit an article’ or go to http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/bmjcasereports
All authors need to register once on the submission system (ScholarOne Manuscripts). Authors that have registered can log in using their 'User ID' and 'Password'.

First time authors will need to register by clicking on 'Register here' and completing all three steps circled. Ensure you complete all the fields marked. At the end of step 3 on the 'User ID & Password' page, click on finish to complete registration.
Once you have registered click on 'login' to start the submission process.

Once logged in, click on 'Author Centre'.
To submit your paper click on 'Click here to submit a new manuscript'.
When you get to the 'Details & Comments' section you will be asked to enter a Fellowship Code to prove that you or your institution has purchased access to BMJ Case Reports. You can get your institution's Fellowship Code from the person who purchased the Fellowship (likely the librarian or your head of department).
To submit your paper, ensure all sections are completed correctly then click on 'Submit' at the end of step 7.
If you have any problems submitting your article please contact bmjcases@bmjgroup.com or call +44 (0)20 7383 6373

If you can’t find your ‘Fellowship Code’, please contact support@bmjgroup.com or call +44 (0)20 7383 6270
